Clyde Luke Now Faces Court on Three Charges

Clyde Luke, arrested Thursday on a statutory charge preferred by a 17 year old girl, faced two more charges Saturday—burglary and grand larceny. The bond in the first charge was fixed at $1,000 in the city court. When the same amount was fixed on the second and third charges, a change of venue was demanded and the cause will be heard before Judge Hosinski. The hearing on the first charge which was set for March 22 will be before Judge Giltner.

Edward Elze, 17 years old, said to be involved with Luke on the burglary charge, was also arraigned and pleaded guilty to burglary and was held to the grand jury under $1,000 bond. On a second charge of grand larceny, he pleaded not guilty and on motion of Atty. Scanlan a change of venue was again granted.
